

Video Footage and Talent Release

As a competitor and/or videographer during the 2018 USPA National Skydiving Championships at Chicagoland Skydiving Center, I understand and accept fully that the United States Parachute Association owns all rights to the event including the commercial exploitation of sound and visual images of the event. I authorize Chicagoland Skydiving Center and the United States Parachute Association (collectively "Organizers") the unconditional use of any video footage taken by me or in which I may appear.

As a competitor and/or videographer during the 2018 USPA National Skydiving Championships at Chicagoland Skydiving Center, I agree to the recording of my likeness and my performance, and I give all consents necessary for the reproduction, exhibition, transmission, broadcast, and exploitation of the footage I submit, without time limit, throughout national and international regions by all means and media, whether known or hereafter discovered or developed without liability, any recompense or acknowledgement to me. Organizers shall be entitled to cut and edit the footage as they deem appropriate and shall not be obligated to include all or any particular shots of the footage in any video or any future productions.
